

with no interconnect adapter and no per-method file the axis is simply absent: the evaluated source, the executed checks and the emitted report are identical to the interposer-only deck